CALL TO WORSHIP

led by Isa and Felicia Brown

One: We are all in this together, all peoples around the world are experiencing the effects of this pandemic. We all see the hurts and the hardships as well as the goodwill and hopeful efforts toward many. We are all in this together and we strive to live as people of faith and we call upon God to give us the ability to stand strong, to calm our fears and touch our hearts. We ask for the strength of faith to remain hopeful and patient and to grow in our understanding on how our actions affect the world around us.

Many: We are all in this together, we are united in our human struggles and in our Divine Spirit and together we are stronger than any opposition. This global crisis has created a global community that has banded together determined to overcome this illness and to create innovative means of touching hearts even though we currently cannot touch hands.

One: We are all in this together and we are answering the call by giving the fullness of ourselves to aid our common cause. God's light shines through us all as we creatively share our time, talents and resources for the greater good of ourselves and others.

Many: We are all in this together and by coming together and sharing our best selves we shall overcome.

Opening Prayer

Loving Sustainer God, with genuineness from all speakers we hear the message, "We are all in this together" and we know with deepest of faith You are at the heart of that "We." This pandemic has crossed boundaries and barriers, it has infected millions of people and has affected the entire world. You have walked with us all during these unprecedented times and have opened our hearts which has enabled a global community to grow, rooted in unity, compassion and generosity. We ask for Your continual strength, guidance and comfort as we continue to stand united in the common cause of world wide health, healing, and recovery. Amen

MORNING PRAYER with Pastor Kel

Nancy Brink's reflection on the Lord's Prayer

led by Sierra Delgado

Giver of light, source of life, You are all and in all, opening our hearts in praise. May Your way of peace with justice become our way in our hearts, in our homes, in our cities, in our nation, in our world. Even as we ask for bread we open our hands to share. Even as we seek forgiveness we bring Your spirit of reconciling grace to others. Open our eyes to rightly see deceptive paths and help us choose with wisdom and courage. Yours is the way, the creative energy and breathless beauty in this day and all our days. Amen.

READING

I Corinthians 12:12-27

Chloe Rush

There is one body, but it has many parts and all its many parts make up one body. It is the same with our spiritual body. Within the Divine Spirit we are connected through our faith and united together to form into one body and we are all part of the same Spirit. Suppose the foot says, "I am not a hand. So I don't belong to the body." By saying this, it cannot stop being part of the body. And suppose the ear says, "I am not an eye. So I don't belong to the body." By saying this, it cannot stop being part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, how could it hear? If the whole body were an ear, how could it smell? If all the parts were the same, how could there be a body? As it is, there are many parts. But there is only one body. God has put together all the parts of the body and given them all honor. In that way, the parts of the body are equally important and all of them will take care of one another. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it. If one part is honored, every part shares in its joy. You are an important member of the body of Christ and each of you plays a vital role.

CONGREGATIONAL/CHORAL RESPONSE

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place;

I can feel God's mighty power and God's grace.
