By Charles H. Gabriel

Welcome

Call to Celebrate Carmen and Rosa Mercado

Leader 1: Come, everyone, come, even if life now and then just feels like a chore, even if sometimes it takes its toll on you and sets another burden upon your shoulders. Come.

Leader 2: Vengan, vengan todos, incluso si la vida se siente como un quehacer, aunque estén abrumados y lleven cargas pesadas en sus hombros.

Leader 1: Come and Listen! Hear these words of invitation from the Prophet Isaiah:

ALL: If you are thirsty, come to the water!
Are you penniless? Come anyway—buy and eat!

Leader 1: Come, buy your drinks, buy wine and milk. Buy without money—everything's free!

Leader 2: Why do you spend your money on junk food, your hard-earned cash on cotton candy?

ALL: Listen to me, listen well: Eat only the best, fill yourself with only the finest.

Leader 1: Pay attention, come close and listen carefully to my life-giving, life-nourishing words.

Leader 2: I'll make a lasting covenant commitment to you, the same that I made with King David,

ALL: My mercy knows no boundaries. I will love you with a sure, solid, enduring love.

Seeking God's Presence/Centering Prayer

Bakerwoman God, you make of the world's humblest elements a bountiful feast. We come to you asking for sustenance to carry us through the day. Bless the loaves that we bring to your table today and the farm to table foods that grace our tables at home. You feed the world. Feed us. Amen.

Loving Creator we honor you, and we honor all that you have made. Renew the whole world in the image of your love. Give us what we need for today, and give us a hunger to see the whole world fed. Strengthen us for what lies ahead; heal us from the hurts of the past; give us courage to follow your call in this moment. For your love is the only power, the only home, the only honor we need to survive in this world and in the world to come. Amen.
