Morning Prayers Bill Jacobs

The Lord's Prayer, paraphrased by Sarah Dylan & Mary Jacobs

Holy One who calls us to lead and serve, we honor you, and we honor all that you have made. Let your kin-dom come in us;
fashion us into a family, diverse and colorful, created in the image of your love.
Give us what we need for today, and a hunger to see each other and all fed with bread and grace.
Strengthen us for what lies ahead; heal us from the hurts of the past;
give us courage to follow your call in this moment.
For your love is the only power, the only home, the only honor we need,
in this world and in the world to come. Amen.

Offertory I Love You Lord by Laurie Klein
John Douglas and Jeffrey Segal

As the offering is brought forward, join in singing: New Century Hymnal #562
*Take our gifts and let us love you, God who first of all loved us,
Gave us light and food and shelter, gave us life and set us free,
Now because your love has touched us, we have love to give away
Take our gifts and let us share them, love and justice to convey.*

Congregational Response Tina Peterson, song leader

Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place;
I can feel God's mighty power and God's grace.
I can hear the brush of angel wings; I see glory on each face.
Surely the presence of the Lord is in this place.
